Instructions

The goal of this self-assessment is for you to examine what you have learned about discourse community, rhetoric, and genre from working through this problem.

Discourse Community

1. What audience were you addressing in the first problem?
2. What did you assume your audience knew?
3. What argument were you making in the individual paper?
4. What argument were you making in the oral presentation?
5. How did you integrate the two?

Rhetoric

1. What types of evidence did you use to make the argument in your individual paper?
2. How did you use sources to explain ideas that agree with your point of view?
3. How did you use sources to explain ideas that disagree with your point of view?

Genre

1. What does an argumentative essay allow its users to do and what does it not allow them to do?
2. Did the oral presentation enable your group to represent itself fully?
3. Does the genre of oral presentation limit you? If so, in what way?
